

YOUNG RIDERS TOUR

Rules 2023

Concept:

The BEMER Young Riders Tour is supporting young riders in 2023 as a class sponsor only for individual classes, that would be:

The competitions: (cannot be a Nations Cup competition)

1. the qualifier competition for the individual Grand Prix and
2. the Grand Prix for Young Riders.

Format of Competitions

The format of these competitions (Table, Art, Speed, Height of Obstacles, etc.) is the responsibility of the organizers themselves and must be according to the FEI Jumping Rules.

Participating events of the BEMER Young Riders Tour 2022 are:

1. Opglabbeek (BEL), from 07-10 April 2022.
2. Gorla Minore, (ITA), from 13-17 April 2022
3. Zduchovice (CZE), from 20-24 April 2022
4. Fontainebleau (FRA), from 28 April - 1 May 2022
5. Lamprechtshausen (AUT), from 5-8 May 2022
6. Zuidwolde (NED), from 01-05 June 2022
7. Hagen a.T.W. (GER), from 16-19 June 2022
8. Kronenberg (NED), from 22-25 September 2022

Prizes

The winner receives: starting place at four (4) stages of the BEMER Riders Tour of the following season, whereby a start at the first stage is obligatory (otherwise this starting place is forfeited).

Second place receives: starting place at two (2) stages of the BEMER Riders Tour of the following season. Participation in the first stage is again obligatory.

Third place receives: starting place at one (1) selected stage of the BEMER Riders Tour of the following season.

The BEMER Riders Tour 2023 will most likely begin at "Horses & Dreams meets..." from 19-23 April 2023. The best-placed young riders will receive starting places from the organisers' contingent.

The points system is as follows:

Point system
rank 1	20 points
rank 2	17 points
rank 3	15 points
rank 4	13 points
rank 5	11 points
rank 6	10 points
rank 7	9 points
rank 8	8 points
rank 9	7 points
rank 10	6 points
rank 11	5 points
rank 12	4 points
rank 13	3 points
rank 14	2 points
rank 15	1 point

In case of a tie after the 8th stage in xxx, the better result in xxx will decide the ranking. To be eligible for the final individual classification an athlete must compete at the last stage of the BEMER Young Riders Tour 2023.